Supporting Black Farmers Business Resources

40 Acres &amp; A Mule Project	The 40 Acres & a Mule Project came into existence when my endeavors and information sharing began to generate interest in the form of monetary support from others, both online and within my local community.
A Growing Culture	BIPOC farmer legal fund
Black Farmers Collective	Seattle, WA based - provides training to support new BIPOC farmers
Black Farmers Network	Black Farmers' Network (BFN) is a site for rural, African-American farmers to share stories, products and services in a now digital-driven economy.
Black Farmers Index	Largest, FREE, most comprehensive directory of Black Farmers. The Black Farmers Index is a guide directly connecting you to traditional and non-traditional growers.
Farms to Grow, Inc.	CA based - advocates for Black farmers and other underserved farmers across the country.
National Black Farmers Association	The National Black Farmers Association (NBFA) is a non-profit organization representing African American farmers and their families in the United States.
Soul Fire Farm	Afro-Indigenous centered community farm committed to uprooting racism and seeding sovereignty in the food system in New York
Sharing Our Roots	BIPOC led poultry and perennial farm in Minnesota
Ujamaa Cooperative Farming Alliance	BIPOC led collection of farmers
Sankofa Farms	North Carolina - a Black led multifaceted agricultural entity that seeks to assist changing the food intake habits of those living in and affected by food deserts
